

Grant Making

The purpose of Grant Making is to support the initiatives of Nepali women groups in Nepal, especially from the most marginalized and vulnerable communities.

Grantee Capacity Building Grantee Capacity Building training on CEDAW and Right Based Approach was held in Nepalgunj for 24 participants including 12 grantee partners from 11 districts. The training was held on 27 & 28th August in collaboration with Women's Fund Asia. The main facilitator for the training was Tulika Srivastav, Executive Director of Women's Fund Asia.

Some of the learnings from this training was:

- Grantee Partners learned more about the Right Based Approach and CEDAW. One should always use CEDAW as a base while advocating for the Rights of Women.
- The participants also learned about the practical way of learning and teaching.

Discretionary grant of NRs 1 lakh was disbursed to Indigenous Women Legal Awareness Groups (INWOLAG) for National level dialogue program on CEDAW Shadow Report on Rights of Indigenous Women

Monitoring Visit at our Grantee Partner Organization

Learning, Monitoring and Evaluation

Monitoring visits to our Grantee Partner Organizations at Sama-bikas ko Lagi Nawa Bhumi- Gokarneswor and Mahila Sasaktikaran Tatha Bahuudhesiya Samaj (WEMPS), Pepsicola was organized to monitor the status of the on-going projects. Monitoring visit was fruitful for both Tewa and our grantee partners regarding the learnings and exchanging feedback and suggestions. Likewise,

- Increasing men engagement in the interventions to enhance gender equality more effective .
- In any income generating projects, addition of knowledge about marketing and accounting is also important for women empowerment.
- Frequent follow up of the trainings and regulations of groups need to be done to bring the positive changes in the community.

From July to September, total of 6 Frameworks were prepared of which the data and information regarding the projects that following grantees have implemented in their respective areas were secured. The information are collected from focus group discussion held with stakeholders during field visits, workshops or even through phone calls.

Local Fund Raising:

From July to September, we raised NRs 4,39,439/- through our local fund raising efforts.

These amounts were raised from the supported of Nepali individuals and institutional donors.

SIGNATURE CAMPAIGN

People Signing the petition at Mangalbazar, Patan

Signature Campaign was organized in coordination with Nagarik Aawaz at Mangal Bazaar on September 21, 2018 with the message “Laijau Chari Sandesh boki Balatkari lai.” The participants of Young Women Leadership Program actively participated in this campaign to make it a successful one.

Around 300 people signed the petition.

Staff Capacity Enhancement Sessions

A talk program on Motivational and Stress Management was held on 31st Bhadra (16th September). The session was moderated by Dr. Kedar Rayamajhi. The session focused on the level of stress an individual can go through. The staffs learnt to do a staff evaluation on which stage of stress they were in.

An informational session on new “Civil Code” was organized on Sept 7, 2018 to the staff. Programme was facilitated by Indu Tuladhar. The session provided the information on the new “Muluki Dewani Samhita” and helped clarify more on the civil conduct code that was implemented from Bhadra 2075. The information gained can also be shared with our grantee partners and volunteers without any confusion.

Tewa Center (Deep Yogini)

Between July to September, we had three international organizations host their programme at DeepYogini. Among the three, Sangat organized “Month Long Course 2018” which had 36 participants from seven SAARC countries and one from Sierra Leone, West Africa. During the same period we also had three local social organizations host their programme.

We signed a Memorandum of Understanding for another year with National Society for Earthquake Technology Nepal (NSET). We also signed an agreement with Save the Children Fund, Kathmandu.
